

KRYSTYNA POREMBA

Profile

I am a University of Waterloo student driven by creativity and curiosity. I love learning new things and developing myself as a creative within a team and independently. Past leadership positions have taught me the importance of trust and collaboration in order to have a successful project.

I am always looking for new industries and positions to broaden my knowledge.

Currently open to challenging opportunities with a specific interest in product & company marketing, UX & UI design, and business positions.
